

AFRICAN AMERICAN RODEO GROUP

Membership Application Form

The African American Rodeo Group, Inc. is dedicated to creating interest in and awareness of animal husbandry, veterinary science, rodeoing as a sport, profession, and family entertainment. The proceeds from the rodeo will go to our scholarship fund for youth majoring in a related field of study in a State of New Mexico college. Some funds will also be used to establish an equestrian group that will include youth and adults to become involved with animal care year round, learn to ride horses, participate in parades, blacksmithing, roping, ranching and other related areas of interest. There are several categories of membership to choose from with benefits to support our rodeo group.
